Part B

1. Activities reflecting the goals and objectives of the institution.

The college from the time of inception had very clear goals and objectives. This are followed in all respect during the year 2009-2010. The student trainees were taught to be honest from their deeds to sends strong signals to the society through the new generation to which they will cater during their future career. To stimulate students in academic, guest lectures of great personalities were arranged. To improve personality of the students, competition like inter-school competition, elocution, essay writing etc. was arranged all through out the year. To imbibe information technology among the students Literacy programmes, blood donation camp, personality development programmes, etc were arranged for creating social values among the students. As a part of creating oneness among the students, tour was arranged. The college celebrates the Independence and Republic day with fervor and enthusiasm. National Integration Day is celebrated by the college for the strong bonding between the students of the college. Every year the college also encourages tree plantation in the college campus and surrounding the college. The programmes are arranged with collaboration with the forest department of the government of Gujarat. Giving equal opportunity to all the stack holders, parent meeting was arranged. Physical fitness was given equal importance by providing all sport equipments. Sports day and different sports competitions were conducted. From time to time feedback is received from the stack holders for the betterment of the institution.

2. New academic programmes initiated (UG and PG).

No academic programmes were conducted in the present year. But we are planning to start an M.Ed course in future.

3. Innovations in curricular design and transaction.

As a part of innovation in curricular augmentation at the college level, entrance test was conducted for the B. Ed. students at the start of the year. All through out the academic year, unit test was conducted. For inculcating honesty in the students, non-supervisor internal examinations were conducted. New subjects like Yoga and Computer was added in the curriculum as a compulsory subject for the B.Ed. students. Seminar and project work was made compulsory for the students. To improve and enhance the creativity of writing skills in the students, two handwritten magazines “Saurabh” and “Narishakti” were prepared by the trainees of the college. Memorial lecturer series were arranged in the college. Different subject experts from different institutions were invited for guest lectures. The college arranges inter faculty exchange programmes regularly.

4. Inter-disciplinary programmes started.

The college is affiliated to the Gujarat University, so the courses already being offered are as per university curricula.

5. Examination reforms implemented.

This year at the start of the academic session, entrance test was conducted for the students. Unit tests were conducted throughout the year for the benefit of the students. Question bank was developed for the welfare of the students. Students were shown the answer sheets of the first and preliminary tests, so that they can know their own mistakes and improve those and tried to get good score. Bright and poor students were sorted out and treated accordingly in separate groups. Content-based assignments were given.

6. Candidates qualified: NET/SLET/GATE etc.

The B.Ed. is only one year course, the students' gets into their profession and to keep tab of them is very difficult. No such data is available of the students for the year 2009-2010.
